

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: 28 February 2025

At AnthiaX, your privacy matters to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal data when you interact with our website (<https://www.anthiax.io>) and other digital properties we own and operate.

1. Information We Collect

We only collect personal information when it's necessary to deliver a service, improve your experience, or meet our legal obligations. Any data we gather is collected lawfully, with your knowledge and consent.

Examples include:

- Contact forms you submit
- Analytics or tracking for site functionality
- Voluntary feedback or email communications

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your data strictly for the purposes we've made clear at the point of collection.

This includes:

- Responding to enquiries or requests
- Improving website functionality and user experience
- Monitoring and protecting the security of our website

3. Data Retention and Protection

We retain personal data only for as long as needed to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected. We take appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your data against loss, theft, unauthorised access, or disclosure.

4. Sharing Your Information

We do not share personally identifiable information with third parties unless:

- You give us explicit consent
- It's required by law (e.g. for legal compliance)

5. External Links

Our website may include links to third-party sites. Please note that we are not responsible for their content or privacy practices.

6. Your Rights

You can refuse to provide personal information, but this may limit your access to certain services. You also have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal data.

7. Acceptance of Terms

By continuing to use our site, you agree to our privacy practices as outlined in this policy.

8. Contact Us
